Wild Actions of Individual Who Turned Highwayman May Result

Ogden, Dec. 24 .- J. C. Anderson of Huntsville, who was arrested Wednesday night by Deputy Sheriff Oren Hadlock after the fellow had attempted to hold him up at the point of a gun, will be tried before a sanity commission to-day. When arrested, Anderson gave name of Jack Smith. His wild actions since his confinement and his de-lirious ravings have caused Sheriff Wilson to recommend that the fellow be examined as to his sanity and com-mitted to the state mental hospital at Provo, in case it is found that he is langerously insane. From relatives of dangerously fistale. From the unfortunate man, it is learned that several years ago, following a quarrel with a young lady with whom he had been keeping company, Anderson shot bimself in the head, the shot failing to enter a vital point. Since that time he has been afflicted at times with mild varieties of insanity, but up to the pres-ent time it has not been considered that be was at all degrees. he was at all dangerous.

IN DAMAGE SUIT

Ogden, Dec. 24.—Asking for damages in the sum of $55, F. M. Tout has start-ed action in the district court against Walter Reed. The complaint alleges that on June 16 of this year, Reed and Tout entered into a horse trade in which Tout entered into a norse trade in which Tout agreed to pay Reed the sum of $20 "to boot" for his horse. When the check for $20 was presented for payment, Reed found that payment had been stopped and he immediately started action in the municipal court to collect the $20. Tout now claims that the horse was foundered and that it had been "doctored" at the time the trade was made, and that immediately after, the animal became sick and therefore

FOR AVOIDING STATUTE

Ogden, Dec. 24.—For failing to give a receipt for pawned goods, Dick Kreines, one of the proprietors of the Montana Loan office, has been sentenced to pay a fine of $25 by Acting Police Judge R. S. Farnsworth, The case grew out of a transaction in which John Newman, a plasterer of this city, pawned an overcoat, valued at $250 on Doc. 14 with Kreines, receiving $50, on Dec. 14, with Kreines, receiving therefor $3. On asking for a pawn ticket, Newman was informed that it as not necessary, that the coat would Monday, Newman called for his coat Monday. Newman called for his coat and both Kreines and his partner, Abe Pappe, went through the actions of making a thorough search for the coat, which could not be found. There is now much speculation as to whether the coat can be found.

SCORED BIG SUCCESS

Ogden, Dec. 24 .- At the Ogden theater on Monday, Dec. 23.—At the Ogden high school alumni association opera company will again present the comic opera, "Erminic." There will be two performances, a matine at 2:30, and the evening performance at the usual hour. Those who witnessed the presentation of this heautiful and targetul. tation of this beautiful and tuneful comedy on the two evenings of its first production know that it is, without exception, the finest amateur piece ever attempted by local people. Too much cannot be said of the excellent rendi-tion of the numerous choruses, and Conductor Joseph Ballantyne deserves credit for his splendid work with the has been happily chosen and the com-edy roles are especially well filled.
